New Roundtables Announced

The State Auditor's Office wants your feedback on BARS

We value the opinions of local governments in Washington and want to hear from you. That's why we are offering free, three-hour roundtable discussions on our budget, accounting and reporting systems (BARS) across the state. These discussions will be directed by you, the local government, and cover a wide variety of topics related to BARS.

In addition to listening to your feedback and suggestions, we will be covering topics such as the new Financial Intelligence Tool (FIT), upcoming changes to BARS, and online filing. Roundtables start in early October and run through the middle of December. Sessions are filling up quickly, so contact us soon to be sure of a seat.
